EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITY

Maternity Leave Community Health and Homecare Nurse

As an employee of the Ligwilda'xw Health Society (LKT) you will be a key member of the health team, providing direct patient support to LKT member nation citizens. This exciting role will offer the right candidate a 13-month Maternity Leave Community Health and Homecare Nurse position.

Reporting to the Health Director, the Maternity Leave LPN/CHHN is a registered nurse. As with all community nurses at LKT, the incumbent is certified to provide a full complement of community nursing care to clients. The incumbent is responsible for working cooperatively with the entire LKT Health team.

As a Maternity Leave position, this employee will start work on October 19th and remain in the position until 1 year after the baby is born. This position is 28 hours per week. The position travels to all the LKT site locations as dispatched.

An LPN/CHHN. Current Registration and in good standing with British Columbia College of Nurses and Midwives. Current CPR certification. Experience in a community health and/or home care related field is required. Foot Care Course Diploma.

Previous experience working in a First Nations Community (particularly LKT member Communities) is preferred.

In circumstances where there is an equal combination of qualifications and experience, preference will be given to people of Aboriginal heritage.

To receive a comprehensive job description, please email: administration@lkthealth.ca

LKT Health provides preventative and health promotion services for 3 of our member nations.

If you are interested in applying for this position, please submit your resume, cover letter (including salary expectations and three employment references) to:
